ATTENTION ALL ARTISTS AND CRAFTSMEN

The Cleveland Museum of Art has announced that entry blanks for the 43rd MAY SHOW will be available beginning February 17, 1961. All artists and craftsmen born or living in this county are eligible to enter the competition. To obtain entry blanks those interested must write to: The Cleveland Museum of Art, c/o May Show, Cleveland 6, Ohio. Entry blanks must be filled in and returned to the Museum before March 27.

The MAY SHOW began in 1919 and has gained an international reputation. This far-reaching change in the geographical scope of the show means that artists and craftsmen in the Western Reserve will be able to take advantage of an unusual opportunity to exhibit their work in this important regional show. The Western Reserve includes: Ashland, Ashtabula, Cuyahoga, Erie, Geauga, Huron, Lake, Lorain, Mahoning, Medina, Portage, Summit, and Trumbull Counties.

Works are to be submitted April 8 through April 17. The 43rd MAY SHOW opens May 10 and continues through June 11 at The Cleveland Museum of Art.
